Why study @ UMU?

Uganda Martyrs University (UMU) is a faith-based private, not-for-profit University, owned by the Episcopal Conference of Catholic Bishops of Uganda. The University was officially launched on 18th October 1993 by His Excellency Yoweri Kaguta Museveni, President of the Republic of Uganda. UMU received a Charter from the Government of Uganda on 2nd April 2005.

In her 33 years of existence, Uganda Martyrs University (UMU) has developed into a reputable institution in the region and is a leading Private Chartered University in the East African Region, with a student population of over 6500.

UMU: An Ideal Place for Academic Engagement

UMU's Main Campus is located along the Equator, GPS coordinates of Uganda Martyrs University, Uganda. Latitude: 0.0030 Longitude 32,0090 on the shores of Lake Victoria which is a direct link with the 'centre of the world', with an environmentally friendly campus ideal for study, learning and reflection. Students are able to compound their academic experience with touristic adventures as they stand at the very point where the northern and the southern hemispheres cross. Our other Campuses also offer unique experiences.

Internationally connected

UMU has academic alliances with complementary institutions in the region, Asia, Europe, the Middle East and America. These alliances support academic relationships and enhance educational opportunities for staff, students and those undertaking advanced research. Some of these include the Catholic University of Milan, Italy; Kenyatta University in Kenya; St. Mary's University Halifax, Canada; Katholieke Universiteit Nijmegen, Netherlands; and the University of Notre Dame, USA; Marymount University, USA; and Caucasus University, Georgia.

UMU programmes are accredited by the National Council for Higher Education and recognised by the corresponding Professional Bodies in Uganda. Delivering of lectures follows a hybrid of face-to-face, online and Distance Learning modes of teaching and learning

FACULTY OF EDUCATION

The Faculty of Education is one of the pioneer faculties since the inception of the university. It was started in 2002 running education programmes at Diploma, Bachelors and Masters Level and PhD level. The faculty offers academic excellence and vibrant Education tailored to a semester and Trimester system. The faculty has expanded in many aspects, including an increase in the number of students, lecturers, and teaching facilities. Currently, the student population stands at over 1000, including both undergraduate and postgraduate students. The faculty also boasts competent and highly qualified academics serving as full-time members of staff. These include holders of postgraduate qualifications, i.e., PhDs and Masters, and some at the level of Associate and full professors. The Faculty of Education at Uganda Martyrs University is available across multiple campuses, including Nkozi, Lubaga, Fortportal, Masaka, Mbale and Ngetta.

FACULTY OF LAW

The Bachelor of Laws Programme intends to provide theoretical and practical training for a wide range of careers in legal practice and related fields. It is tailored towards exposing students to the basic concepts, procedures and reasoning underpinning the Ugandan legal system while acknowledging the importance of International systems as impacting on domestic law development. A whole range of transferable skills such as dialogue and mediation, alternative dispute resolution (ADR), research, communication skills, legal clinical skills and computing will also be taught. The course content is designed to cater for students from Uganda and elsewhere in the world and is decidedly sensitive to all legal matters. International students from East Africa and/or with an interest in law in East Africa will also find this program useful.

The Uganda Martyrs University Faculty of Law was accredited 7th May 2019 and consequently had their first intake of 49 pioneer students in August 2019. The Faculty of Law at Uganda Martyrs University is available across multiple campuses, including Nkozi, Lubaga and Masaka.

Education is constraining and directing of youth towards that right reason, which the law affirms and which the experience of the best of our elders has agreed to be truly right.

FACULTY OF THE BUILT ENVIRONMENT

The Faculty of the Built Environment is a multidisciplinary faculty offering programmes and courses in Architecture, Landscape Architecture, Environmental Design and Building Technology. With an emphasis on Environmentally Conscious Design (ECD), a key goal of the faculty is to educate responsible professionals who can contribute to cultural and socio-economic development and change in East Africa and the global community through participation in design, construction, and interpretation of built environments. The faculty recognises that in a continually changing world, professional experience and research are important, academic faculty contribute to teaching and scholarship in areas related to their research interest, serving to enrich the learning environment of the faculty.

The flagship undergraduate programme in the faculty, the Bachelor of Environmental Design (Honours) is the basis for academic study in the faculty and serves as the basic programme leading to professional master's degrees in architecture, landscape architecture and urban design. It serves as Part I of the three-part professional programme in architecture and is a prerequisite for the Master of Architecture (Professional) programme (Part II). Both courses are recognised and validated by the Uganda National Council for Higher Education (NCHE), the Uganda Society of Architects (USA), and the Uganda Architects Registration Board (ARB). The Faculty of the Built Environment at Uganda Martyrs University is available at Nkozi campus.

FACULTY OF AGRICULTURE AND ENVIRONMENT

Established in the year 2000, the Faculty of Agriculture is by far one of the largest Faculties of the University running graduate, undergraduate as well as diploma and certificate programs. The Faculty of Agriculture is to holistically build a critical quality and quantity of professional agriculturists with sustainable resource management hands-on skills, in order to meet the University's goal of creating an environment where intellectual and moral values are a priority, while contributing to the national goal of modernizing agriculture as a means of achieving food security, alleviating poverty and diversifying foreign exchange earnings through short and long term, demand driven curricula, as well as farmer needs oriented research and outreach programs. The Faculty of Agriculture and Environment at Uganda Martyrs University is available across multiple campuses, including Nkozi, Lubaga and Ngetta.

"Empowering minds to feed nations, protect ecosystems, and lead the future of sustainable development."

MOTHER KEVIN POSTGRADUATE MEDICAL SCHOOL, NSAMBYA

Mother Kevin Postgraduate Medical School (MKPGMS) was established in 2010 by Uganda Martyrs University (UMU) in partnership with Nsambya Hospital. Training at MKPGMS started in four (4) disciplines (Internal Medicine, General Surgery Paediatrics & Child Health and Obstetrics and Gynaecology) that had enough senior staff to teach, supervise, and mentor the trainees. But right from the outset, UMU realized the glaring absence in the country, and perhaps in the whole of East Africa, of postgraduate training programmes for the specialties of Emergency Medicine and Critical Care Medicine. To this end, UMU and Nsambya hospital started preparing the teaching venues for these specialties, with the aim of initiating the courses in these disciplines as soon as the facilities were in place. Release of the draft Curriculum for Emergency Medicine came at a ripe time when the remodelling of the Emergency Department at Nsambya Hospital was close to completion. This task is now historical. The Emergency Department, its teaching programme and a curriculum approved by NCHE are now fully operational and the Department enrolls candidates for MMed Emergency Medicine course. By now there seven courses accredited by NCHE, including Emergency Medicine, Orthopaedic surgery and Radiology and Imaging. The Mother Kevin Postgraduate Medical School at Uganda Martyrs University is available at Nsambya campus.

FACULTY OF HEALTH SCIENCES

FHS was established in 2005 by the University Senate. It is one of the Faculties of Uganda Martyrs University, which specializes in teaching and conducting research in Public Health, Health Services Management; Health Promotion and other related programmes.

The mandate of the Faculty of Health Sciences is to contribute to the advancement of knowledge through teaching, research and community services. FHS carries out this mandate through training of health managers, public health specialists and promoters. On invitation, FHS also contributes to the training of health managers/promoters at their workplaces and within their area of jurisdiction in Uganda and anywhere else. The Faculty of Health Sciences at Uganda Martyrs University is available at Lubaga and Fortportal campuses.

"Empowering health professionals to lead with skill, integrity, and compassion in a changing world."

Pursue Your Passion for Innovation and Leadership with the Faculty of Business Administration and Management

THE FACULTY OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION AND MANAGEMENT

The Faculty of Business Administration and Management is one of the pioneer Faculties at Uganda Martyrs University and it was established to bridge the gap between managerial theory and practice. The main thrust of the Faculty consists in providing courses that train students to understand and internalize managerial theory, taking into consideration the relevancy of theory to the job market and equip them with useful managerial skills and attitudes applicable to varied work scenarios. The faculty is to be one of the Africa's most renowned and internationally respected schools of management education, comprising of a community of celebrated scholars, lecturers, students and alumni whose creative work and moral integrity transforms the quality of the learning and practice of management by sound critical up- to date and practical business transactions.

The Faculty of Business Administration and Management was established in 1993 to provide degrees, diplomas and certificate programmes in business and management related studies. The faculty is both a research and teaching institution of Uganda Martyrs University. The Faculty of Business Administration and Management at Uganda Martyrs University is available across multiple campuses, including Nkozi, Lubaga, Ngetta, Masaka, Mbale and Fortportal.

THE SCHOOL OF ARTS AND SOCIAL SCIENCES

The School of Arts and Social sciences is a cluster of five departments, namely; The Department of Development Studies, the Department of Governance, Peace and International Studies, the Department of Journalism and Communication Studies, The Department of Languages and the department for Ethics and interdisciplinary. The departments have a conglomeration of disciplines that give insights into a humanity journey and quest for development, concern themselves with power and authority, avail experiences of cross-cultural analysis helping us to understand societies, departments that examine production, distribution and consumption of goods in national development, and that gives a systematic perspective on humanities relationship to the physical environment, among others. All these disciplines offered in the school have academic identities and a powerful thrust that provoke students to take full Participation in academia and practice in their appropriate specializations. The School of Arts and Social Sciences at Uganda Martyrs University is available across multiple campuses, including Lubaga, Masaka, Mbale, and Nkozi.

FACULTY OF SCIENCE

The vision of the Faculty of Science is to be a model and reputable center of excellence in research, innovation, teaching and community engagement. Our Mission is to provide high quality holistic education through scientific research, training and community engagement to enhance practical skills and community development. The Faculty is committed to training competent, high-level manpower in science subjects that will increase the stock of scientists in and outside Uganda. We encourage inter-disciplinary teaching across Faculties as well as amicable relationship between staff and students.

The Faculty has two departments: Computer Science and Information Systems and that of Natural Sciences. We offer Diploma, Bachelors, Masters and Doctorate of Philosophy programs in various fields. The Faculty of Science at Uganda Martyrs University is available across multiple campuses, including Lubaga, Masaka and Nkozi.

DIRECTORATE OF GRADUATE STUDIES, RESEARCH AND ENTERPRISE (DGSRE)

The mandate of DGSRE is to oversee Graduate Studies, Research and Publication, and Enterprise at Uganda Martyrs University in collaboration with the various Faculties and disciplines of the University. Currently graduate academic Programmes at UMU include 4 PhDs, 34 Masters, and 5 Post Graduate Diplomas. The mandate is managed by a team of both academic and administrative staff in charge of Graduate Admission processes, overseeing teaching, learning and research, as well as communication of research outputs. The Directorate hosts the Uganda Martyrs University Press, which runs the Uganda Martyrs Book Series, Mtafiti Mwafrika (African Researcher) monograph series, and the Journal of Science and Sustainable Development. It also hosts the Center for African Studies, and works with Faculties/Schools/Institutes, which manage the curriculum under their docket. DGSRE boasts of being an academic unit with national and international reputation. We strongly believe in collaborative work. From inception, DGSRE has envisaged itself as a bedrock of great initiatives, energies, and innovations. Our conviction is that we will grow in all spheres in the coming years and will greatly contribute to the development of our country and region.

"Empowering the next generation of digital innovators." Our programs combine theory and practice to build intelligent systems, solve complex problems, and transform industries.
